

TWO CENTS—THE DAY BOOK—TWO CENTS

MEETINGS TODAY, SUNDAY AND MONDAY

SATURDAY.

Junior Socialist Labor league meets in Lecture hall, Hull House, 800 S. Halsted, 7:30 p. m. Caleb Harrison speaks on "Present War Crisis and the Young People."

SUNDAY.

Chicago Bahai assembly, room 713, Hartford bldg., 8 S. Dearborn, 3:30 p. m. Subject: "The Fulfillment of Prophecy."

Society of Anthropology meets at Corinthian hall, Masonic Temple, 2:30 p. m. "A Physiological Discovery, Upsetting the Opinions of Scientists," by Elizabeth Walters.

Fred A. Moore lectures on "The Social Meaning of Immortality" at West Side People's forum, Robey and Warren av., 7:45 p. m.

Theosophy meeting at Besant hall, 116 S. Michigan av., 3:30 p. m. "The Risen Christ," by Miss Julia K. Sommer.

Public meeting of Women's Auxiliary of Nat'l Federation of Postoffice Clerks, Local No. 1, at Masonic Temple, room 611, 2 p. m. Mrs. Leonora J. Meder speaks on "Birth Control."

Universalist church of Redeemer, Robey and Warren av., Fred A. Moore, minister. "Raymond, or Life and Death," 10:45 a. m.

Public Ownership league meets at Musicians' hall, 175 W. Washington, 2 p. m.

H. Percy Ward lectures on "The Russian Revolution" at Corinthian hall, Masonic Temple, 11 a. m.

West Side Y. P. S. L. installation of officers at 1006 S. Ashland av., 7 p. m.

Chas. Kruse, internat'l pres. of Internat'l Bro. Workers' ass'n, lectures at Hobo college, 917 W. Washington bldg., 8 p. m. on "War, What For?"

M. C. Walsh lectures on "Venial Press and the Present War" at Hobo college, 917 W. Washington bldg., 8 p. m. Miss Dale Winters, opera singer, sings.

Wm. H. Seed, first editor of "Daily Herald," organ of militant British labor, speaks on "The Future of European Labor," at Dill Pickle Forum, 12 Tooker pl., near 863 N. Dearborn, 8 p. m.

Douglas Park Y. P. S. L. special meeting at 3450 Ogden av., 2:30 p. m.

Northwestern Labor school, 2524 Division, invites friends of Russian revolution to meeting, 4 p. m. Speakers in several languages.

Junior Socialist league holds educational meeting at Workers' inst., 1006 Ashland av.

Thos. J. Hagerty speaks on "Lessons from Mexico" at American Rostrum, Fraternity bldg., 19 W. Adams, Jefferson hall, 2:45 p. m. Auspices, American Rostrum.

Women's Trade Union league holds public meeting at Schiller hall, 64 W. Randolph, 3:30 p. m. Mine, Antoinette Le Brun and three pupils give concert program.

MONDAY.

Night workers in dairy lunchrooms meet at Chicago Walters' ass'n, 115 W. Madison, 8 a. m.

Woman's City club annual luncheon and meeting at Auditorium hotel, 1 p. m.

Directors and assistants of charity society of City Mission meet at School hall, Thorne av. and Walton, 2 p. m.

WEATHER FORECAST

Rain or snow tonight and Sunday; continued cool; fresh to strong northeast to east winds, shifting to east winds, shifting to northwest Sunday. Temperature Friday: High, 46; low, 35.